++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy, with outbreaks of rain. Feeling cool.

Today:
Rather dull and cloudy, with outbreaks of rain and drizzle. Rain turning persistent at times, especially across the Pennines, with some hill fog also possible. Sea fret also affecting some coasts. Feeling much cooler than Thursday with a brisk breeze. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy for most overnight, but with outbreaks of rain and drizzle gradually fading away. Winds also easing, with a few clearer spells possible by dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cloudy day for most with the odd spot of rain or drizzle, especially across hills, or where sea fret moves into coastal parts. Some brighter spells possible inland. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Often rather cloudy, especially Sunday, but generally fine and dry with light winds and spells of warm sunshine. Staying rather dull and cloudy at times along the coast, however.
